TRAVEL TO MALAYSIA

The main gateway to Malaysia is through the Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) in Sepang, located about 50km south of Kuala Lumpur. The national carrier, Malaysia Airlines is part of the One World Alliance and has a global network that spans six continents and its subsidiary, Firefly, and budget airlines, AirAsia and Malindo Air, complement its routes.

The KLIA2 is less than 2km away from the main terminal of KLIA and is the world’s largest purpose-built terminal dedicated to low-cost carriers. Other major international airports that serve as entry points are situated in Penang; Johor Bahru; Kuching, Sarawak; Kota Kinabalu, Sabah; and the island of Langkawi.

The main entry point to Malaysia by sea is Port Klang, about 50km away from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Malaysia is also accessible by rail and road from Singapore and Thailand.

KUALA LUMPUR INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT (KLIA)

Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) is located about 50km (31 miles) south of Kuala Lumpur; an hour's drive by direct motorway link or 28 minutes via the KLIA Express Rail Link (ERL).

Opened in 1998, KLIA represents an RM10.7billion (US$2.8billion) investment. The airport is user-friendly with simple and clear passenger routes through check-in, immigration and the boarding gates. Passengers can relax in a spacious environment with a wide range of retail, catering and refreshment facilities.

There are just over 60 passenger international airlines operating services at KLIA. Direct mid to long-haul access is provided to five Australian and five Middle East cities, seven North American and African cities and nine European cities plus the Asian regional and domestic networks.

KUALA LUMPUR INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT 2 (KLIA2)

Located less than 2km away from KLIA, KLIA2 links low-cost carrier and legacy airline passengers for a seamless transit to any destination worldwide.

Opened in May 2014, KLIA2 replaced the Low-Cost Carrier Terminal (LCCT). Built to be Malaysia's next generation international airport hub and featuring a host of shopping and F&B outlets, the purpose-built mega terminal is dedicated to low-cost carriers. It is designed to accommodate up to 45 million passengers annually and allow expansion for future air travel growth trends and airlines' operational models. The terminal measures 257,000sqm, with 60 gates, eight remote stands, 80 aerobridges, plus a retail space of 32,000sqm, accommodating 225 retail outlets.

Airlines using KLIA2:

- AirAsia
- AirAsia Zest
- AirAsia X
- Cebu Pacific Air
- Indonesia AirAsia
- Jetstar Air
- Thai AirAsia
- Tiger Air
- Scoot
- JC Cambodia
